

PURCELL MOUNTAIN LODGE
March 2019 Newsletter

Spring in the backcountry is a time for transition and renewal. The end of March brought the close of our winter operation. Our dedicated Purcell Lodge family delivered a stellar program having welcomed guests from all over the globe. We valued the new friendships and returning friends to our mountain home. The quality time spent together will not be forgotten. We hope each guest enjoyed our hospitality and attentive care and returned home with cherished memories. As we bid farewell to winter and pack away our warm layers past guests are dreaming about next seasons power offerings. It is not too early to start thinking about your mountain getaway for next year. It is recommended to book your stay as early as possible. Purcell Mountain Lodge takes pride in being able to accommodate adventurers of all ages and abilities booking early will allow us to better plan for your stay. We promise to deliver an unforgettable 2020 experience!

A heartfelt thank you to Purcell Lodge friends old and new for your visit in the 2018/2019 winter season. We welcome all guests back next season for the same rate offering. Offer is not applicable for private group special rates.

CRMR
CANADIAN ROCKY MOUNTAIN RESORTS

Our valued Lake to Peak partner Canadian Rocky Mountain Resort Family visit to Purcell Mountain Lodge. It was our pleasure to welcome Larkin & Mairead and kids along with the CRMR friends and family private group. CRMR Chef team of Thomas & Kelly kept the crew fed while days were filled with adventure activities for all ages to enjoy. Ski touring, snowshoeing and tobogganing fun by day and laughter, games and relaxation by night. Right photo: Ramsey gives the “thumbs up!” to a fantastic week in our mountain home.

Jordan Small, Multi Media Reporter Rocky Mountain Outlook

Our Purcell Lodge family enjoyed spending time with Jordan Small, a multi media reporter with Rocky Mountain Outlook, Canmore, Alberta. It was a special visit for Jordan, a native of Ontario with no previous backcountry experience. Hiking & Snowshoe Guide Kevin Blades and owner Sunny Sun wowed Jordan and photographer & filmmaker Aida to our breathtaking backyard.

Purcell Mountain Lodge is a member of the Backcountry Lodges of British Columbia family of helicopter access nonmechanized operators. Go to www.backcountrylodgesofbc.com to learn more about our affiliation with over 30 Lodges offering multi season activities. Find your bliss winter, spring, summer and fall. Hiking, trail running, hike & yoga retreats and mountain bike season is around the corner. Hurray for summer!
